

Comprehensive Examination #2

Cross-Cultural Religious Phenomena:
Revitalization Movements

James A. Treat
Graduate Theological Union
July 3, 1991

Table of Contents

Introduction 1

Part I

Theoretical Perspectives on Revitalization Movements

The Study of Revitalization Movements 7

Theoretical Approaches

Revitalization Movements and Primitive Religion

Revitalization Movements in Cross-Cultural Perspective

American Indian Movements

African American Movements

Judeo-Christian Movements

Revitalization Movement Theory 23

Acculturation

Nativistic Movements

Revitalization Movements

Relative Deprivation

Social Movement Theory 37

Collective Behavior School

Resource Mobilization School

Identity-Oriented Paradigm

Part II

A Modern American Indian Revitalization Movement:
The Indian Ecumenical Conference

History of the Movement 48
 Organization, 1965-70
 Growth, 1970-78
 Decline, 1978-86
 Revival, 1986-89
Ideology of the Movement 58
 Inter-Cultural Dialogue
 Inter-Religious Cooperation
 Indian Communities and Youth
 Environmental Responsibility
Effects of the Movement 65
 Individual Indians
 Intertribal Movements
 Tribal Communities
Theoretical Analysis 69
 What Caused the Movement?
 Why Did the Movement Grow?
 What Type of Movement Was It?
 Why Did the Movement Decline?
 Was the Movement Successful?

Appendices	86
1. Conference Statistics
2. Conference Organizers and Participants
3. 1970 Conference Resolutions
4. 1988 Conference Announcement
5. 1974(?) Conference Speech
Bibliography	95
Part I
Part II	